ORDER

Pending before the Court is the parties' joint motion to reinstate discovery conference motions and for a discovery conference (Docket No. 290), which is GRANTED. A discovery hearing will be held in on December 20, 2022, at 10:00 a.m.¹ in Courtroom 3D, Fred D. Thompson U.S. Courthouse, 719 Church Street, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

The Clerk is directed to reinstate the following filed matters as pending motions for the Court's resolution: Docket No. 265, Docket No. 268, Docket No. 271, Docket No. 273, and Docket No. 277.² If any of these matters are resolved, either partially or in full, before the December 20 discovery hearing, the parties must promptly notify the Court by the filing of a joint notice of resolution of discovery dispute that identifies the specific issue or dispute resolved.

² The Court recognizes that these docket entries include joint discovery dispute statements rather than the originally-filed motions for discovery conferences. Designation of the joint discovery dispute statements as pending motions will assist the Court in identifying the matters for resolution.

By no later than December 16, 2022, Defendants must file any response in opposition to Plaintiffs' motion to extend the expert discovery deadline. (Docket No. 277.) Additionally, by no later than December 16, 2022, the parties must file a proposed Seventh Modified Case Management Order (with a Word formatted copy separately emailed to the Courtroom Deputy), which must accommodate the current trial date of November 7, 2023.

It is SO ORDERED.

BARBARA D. HOLMES
United States Magistrate Judge
